

Oh look! A pad where we can all make up our own names xD
Oh yay....maybe you should send it to Nic
Haha okay. I keep laughing outloud and my nanna is giving me evil looks because I'm distracting her from her crime show

I would just like to say that when speaking of Esher I DO NOT mean any horrible things I say. I really enjoy getting into character. Nic, I love you! Please don't hate me xD

I would never hate you! haha, it is fun. I kinda feel like Meredith is snobby right now! XD XD
I am totally loving her btw!!

Swords, you should totally add this pad to the SB link thingy lol

Im trying to. But Im reading the When the World is Dying addition and trying to keep up here. XD And what is gonna happen to Samuel? :p Well reading what you have there....I can already tell that he is going to be having quite a few brawls with her....elites Elena is gonna try to make his life hell. Just saying. But she will enjoy it too much to end his life. Have you met Samuel? Not a lot you can do to him. XD I know, which is why it's gonna be so ... just ... well, it's really gonna mess with Elena, and she's gonna try and find ways. Oh my ... what if there's a girl in the camp that reminds Samuel of his older sister? Older. Elena would try get to him through her. ..Samuel might end up killing everyone involved. XD Wyvern would help him. She mightn't show it, but she cares about everyone. Well, Matt and Samuel because they've been there the longest. And Low. I don't know if she likes Harry. It might be a later thing. He did help them with the dogs earlier but she sort of shot all that down. Once they have some big fight with Yuko I think things will change.Yeah I agree.

(PS I am typing in the dark, so I can't actually see my keyboard. I'm going by memory here xD)
I'll do it ^^

Just put it in the SB DT XD
