Quilt

herb

[quilting]
stiching squares together slowly, surely, i'll survive.
patched-up prophecies
of prose and poems
(it's plausible that i'm preaching about a quilt, right?)
queries of quilting quietly commence (alliteration, reiterations, condensation(?)) one of these things is not like the other) correlation is causation creating cluttered chaos
(i would stop it but when i wish to i will not proceed) really quilting is a metaphor and i am just a metamorph if you are to see me more i guarantee that i would be a bore.

[lies threaded in thorough secrecy]
[if we had been older and wiser]

"patched-up prophecies
of prose and poems"
ooooooo alliteration :3
also "correlation is causation" as much as that pains me as a stats student, it is a neat twist xD

Avian's Attempt at Poeting During a Time of No Inspiration (AAPDTNI)

If I close my eyes, what will I see?
If I shut my jaw, what will I hear?
And if I don't wake again, what will my memory become
but a name to the wind,
my body claimed by the stars and the earth,
because to dust I must return.

Who will I become but a taste on someone's tongue, lips forming a word that sends inspo in the form of a fizzy drink. or non-fizzy, if you prefer "a name to the wind" -> love that phraseee yoshis iland

-uhh i dont think ill jam today but ill watch you guys :)
yosh do you own your iland no i live on it doe who owns your iland then 0.0

prompt: the taste of a cherry on a shake

TW: blood

sweet like cake -
maraschino cherries.
(is it blood? or red sherry?) you feint, then make your attack // & i parry.
but of this milkshake,
there is nothing left to take.

CTF-inspired poetry? :P

categories: rev, bin/pwn, crypto, forensics, web, general, osint

i wish i could reverse engineer your words.
do you ever say what you nice? name what you see?
binary exploitation & web exploitation are of no use when you exploit natural resources like my patience and cover it up with a weak layer of encryption.
your secret keys are open for the world to see.
didn't you know? but then you've never had the time for cryptography, and your general skills, in general, are no better than those of a foot soldier.
forensics are futile when your fingerprints smudge like ink under tears of frustration.
i would say osint would help, but to tell you the truth, your data is owned by the world, despite it being lies.

Italian poem? ooooo

Romance is an obv, but idk. Never really been a romantic. I like sci-fi. If put in a relationship idk what I'd do tbh. i like sci-fi and fantasy :DD also same XD what if romance but opposite >.> wait i totally am stealing this idea from a people tab post i think, but like nemeses instead of partners... ugh i forgot who had this idea -_- orrrr romance but it's an ode to food. in italian. set to music. :eyes: lol I love that. I could make a poem about ordering in a cafe with my ragazzo yessss wait ragazzo.... thinks back to the very few duolingo lessons i did in italian years ago boy? brother?? no wait boy i think??? boyfriend.oh wait what's boy then? uhhhh good question. I know son and boyfriend and brother. lol ok XD tis it. I know everything but boy. and girl. bahaha google translate to the rescue hey it is ragazzo!!! duo didn't fail me! oh figlio also works apparently, or maschio lol I might do one about Adam and Okkerill, two charries o mine. !!! They go from utter enemies, to mutual "okay, you exist and we have a common enemy", to friends, to lovers. ahhhh love that :D :) Adam get's his face slammed into a bench the first time those two meet. and his nose broken. UM XD they are kids, what do you expect? Just one is spoiled, the other is socially awkward. oh gosh. what a combo lol is Adam the awkward one >.> wait actually Adam sounds like a rich kid name tho his real name was Merrit, but he changed it to Adam as a joke because with his last name is sounded similar to Adam Sandler. not me thinking that name is familiar but having to search it up >.> the rock strikes again. but we love funny name changes XD yup lol, I know of the name, i know he's a comedian, but I have no idea what he does otherwise. I had friends insisting I name him Adam Sandler, but this is as far as I go. Adam Chandelier. lol no, Adam Soccer. Adam Football. Adam Baseball A dam of water. Adam Ufwahter. LOL XD Imma be working on rp posts okie! :D
